

WILLARD BREVITIES.

Willard, July 9.—Homer Call is seriously ill and grave doubts are entertained concerning his recovery.

Mathew Dalton, another of Willard's pioneers, who has passed the four score mark in years, is recovering from the serious attack of heart failure which he had in Ogden a few days ago.

Mrs. Caroline Stauffer, formerly of Willard, but now of Logan, returned to her home today after a week's visit with relatives and friends.

Two carloads of machinery which will be used in the new power plant in Willard canyon have arrived.
