

until November, 1885, when John W. F. Volker arrived to take charge of the mission. Zwier Willem Koldewyn died at Ogden, Utah, May 14, 1889.

KOOYMAN, Frank I., president of the Netherlands Mission from 1929 to 1933, is the author of "De Profeet der Mormonen, een eerlijk Waarheidsgetuige" (The Mormon Prophet an Honest Witness of Truth) and other writings in the Dutch or Netherlands language. (See Bio. Ency., Vol. 4, p. 101.)

KRUMPERMAN, Jan Frederik, temporary president of the Netherlands Mission from 1869 to 1871, was born Oct. 12, 1832, at Zwolle, Netherlands, a son of Martinus Krumperman and Gerritdina Krijnders. He was baptized Aug. 21, 1866, ordained an Elder Nov. 14, 1868, and appointed mission president pro tem. Sept. 25, 1869, at the departure of Marcus Holling. He rendered service until the arrival of Sybren van Dyk, who took charge Dec. 16, 1871. Elder Krumperman came to Utah in 1873 and died in Ogden July 27, 1876.

LAMMERS, Peter Jacob, president of the Netherlands Mission from 1875 to 1877 and from 1882 to 1884, was born Oct. 22, 1839, in Amsterdam, Holland, a son of Pieter Lammers and Christina Alida Kortman. He was baptized June 23, 1864, ordained an Elder Oct. 20, 1865, under the hands of Joseph Weiler and Francis A. Brown, and set apart as a local missionary. In this capacity he labored until Aug. 20, 1869, when he left

Holland as an emigrant for Utah. Pres. Weiler, reporting his missionary activities, describes Elder Lammers as "indefatigable in his labors." Brother

Lammers returned twice to his native land, both times as president of the mission, and translated and published several small books and pamphlets. The first edition of the Dutch or Netherlands L. D. S. Hymn Book was also compiled by him. He died March 1, 1921, at Ogden, Utah. (See also Improvement Era, Vol. 24, p. 669, and the Netherlands Mission "Ster," Vol. 26, pp. 120 and 127.)

LILLYWHITE, John Philip, president of the Netherlands Mission from 1920 to 1923 and from 1926 to 1929, was born Dec. 23, 1882, at Greenville, Beaver Co., Utah, a son of Benjamin Lillywhite and Mary Lewis. He was baptized June 1, 1893, and filled three missions to the Netherlands, the first one in 1905-1907. On his second and third missions, when he presided, he was accompanied by his wife, Lillian Dahlsrud Lillywhite, who was born Feb. 8, 1896, at Salina, Sevier Co., Utah, a daughter of Andrew Dahlsrud and Anna Jensen. Elder Lillywhite, who is a teacher by profession, received his L. L. B. from the American Extension University at Los Angeles, California, in 1929, and his A. B. degree in religious education from the Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah, in 1935. He is principal of the Box Elder Seminary at Brigham City, Utah.

METS, Samuel, temporary president of the Netherlands Mission from 1863 to 1864, was born Dec. 30, 1836, at Zwynrecht, Holland, a son of Philip Mets and Leah Ova. He moved to Rotterdam in 1862, his name being entered in the register of population (bevolkings register) July 21 of that